the deuteronomistic school history social setting and literature The Deuteronomist, abbreviated as either Dtr or simply D, is one of the sources identified through source criticism as underlying much of the Hebrew Bible (Christian Old Testament). Seen by most scholars more as a school or movement than a single author, Deuteronomistic material is found in the book of Deuteronomy, in the books of Joshua, Judges, Samuel, and Kings (the Deuteronomistic history ...

the deuteronomistic school history social setting and literature There seems to be some variation in the exodus tradition regarding when the Israelites left Egypt. As we saw in the previous entry (), in the Elohist tradition although the Israelites were commanded to stay in their houses "until morning" it does seem that they nevertheless leave Egypt during that very evening. But this is certainly not clear from the text (Ex 12:31-34).
